PRESENTS

ALL SHOOK UP

Under the direction of

William Gallagher

Assisted by

Christine Owen

The scenery was ready, and the makeup had been applied. The hours of waiting and practicing were now at an end. The curtain opens and "ALL SHOOK UP" begins! The authenticy of the play itself made the audience feel as though they were at Bull University witnessing the Freshman Registration; Student Uprising; the play, "Epitaph for Everyman"; incidents at the Scholar and the pad; the Trial and, of course, the happy ending.

The Junior Play of 1963 was the first at Wauconda to show for two nights. The play wouldn't have been the success it was without the masterful direction of Billy "Wilder" Gallagher. The actors and actresses' parts were so true to life that the unusual occurrances did not seem abstract.

The 1965 Senior Class Play will probably be a SMASH!
